Teacher: Ruth Coghill

A former teacher and sales executive, Ruth is an international speaker, author and founder of Words To Inspire - Lifelong Empowerment From God's Word. This ministry exists to provide resources to strengthen each person's faith through the memorizing, meditating, studying and applying of God's Word. Ruth's vivacious personality, love of life and people, brings a transparency that is both inspiring and empowering to her audiences everywhere! "My passion is to motivate women to embrace life-changing truths through reading, studying, memorizing and applying God's Word."

Leading in Music: Dana Marie

Dana Marie is passionate about using music as a tool to be the hands and feet of Jesus to those living in poverty; physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Since 2011, Dana Marie has partnered with Compassion Canada and has travelled to the Dominican Republic on multiple occasions to visit her sponsor child, Kiara. You can find her at Calvary Church in Cambridge, Ontario where she serves on the worship team.

June 9-11, 2017

Teacher: Lue Mahaffey

Mary-Lue Mahaffey, also known as LueLue amongst her indigenous friends, is a single gal, who enjoys long walks on the beach, and chocolate. She currently lives in the small town of Thessalon and serves full-time alongside the Anishinaabe people. While being permanently based out of Thessalon First Nation, Mary-Lue also travels to remote communities only accessible by plane. A passionate Bible teacher, small group facilitator and proud Auntie, Mary-Lue loves opening God's word in community and seeing people draw closer to the Lord.

Leading in Music: Angela Turner

Angela Turner is a singer/songwriter and recording artist who currently lives in Barrie, Ontario with her husband and three children. She has spent 17 years in ministry teaching, leading worship, speaking, and doing children's ministry. She loves using the medium of music to adore her Creator and loves leading others to the throne of grace through corporate worship as well. Her debut CD, Dandelions, was released in 2012. You can follow her at angelaturner.ca or read her blogs at <http://angelaturner99.wix.com/angelaturner>
